- II. To foster friendship among the PURA centers and participants from all regions and every country for mutual understanding, collaboration, cooperation and to share their experience, knowledge, core competence and resources for the common good to evolve happy, prosperous and peaceful societies.
- III. To provide an avenue for cultural, knowledge and economic exchanges which shall be facilitated by the Foundation, to benefit the people of PURA in various parts of the world.
- IV. To conduct seminars and educational activities which shall enable the various PURA participants and stake-holders to appreciate the rich heritage of their counter-parts in other parts of the world and learn to live harmoniously.
- V. To provide a forum for registration of qualified individuals, organizations, institutes, etc. that would like to offer their expertise, services, help, participation, guidance, training for skill development, employment, etc. to PURA members in various parts of the world.
- VI. To help with the design, development, deployment, maintenance, etc. of PURA in their part of the world, with simple and easy-to-follow instructions, guides, road-maps, etc.
- VII. To provide mutual understanding and cooperation between the Foundation and their member PURA centers with other civic minded charitable organizations who undertake commendable services in the fields of education, healthcare, sanitation, eradication of diseases, elimination of poverty, prevention of child abuse and child labor, cruelty to women, eliminate discrimination, etc.
- VIII. To channel and coordinate the charitable and beneficial activities of various local, regional, national and international organizations for the benefit of PURA and the people covered under these PURA centers in any part of the world.
- IX. Notwithstanding the foregoing:
  - a. The Foundation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for cultural, educational and charitable purposes of PURA centers in the world and no part of the net earnings of the Foundation shall be used to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Foundation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the vision, mission and purposes set forth above.
  - b. The Foundation shall NOT engage in or use any of the funds it receives for any political purposes; shall not in any manner attempt to influence legislation, conduct any propaganda, or try to use its influence in any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.
  - c. The Foundation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by (i) an organization exempt from Federal income taxes under Section (501) (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law or (ii) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Code.
  - d. The Foundation shall not accept any gift or grant if the gift or grant contains major conditions which would restrict or violate any of the Foundation's non-profit purposes or if the gift or grant would require serving a private as opposed to public interest.
  - e. The Foundation shall recognize individuals and organizations for their accomplishments in rural development, rural education, rural economic prosperity, etc. in any part of the world.

- f. Equal Opportunity: The Foundation shall be set up for the benefit of all humanity; shall practice equal opportunity for all without regard to one's gender, race, religion, political affiliation, ethnicity, geographic location, etc. and without discrimination of any kind, conforming to all national and international legal stipulations and standards.

SECTION 6: ROLE of the Foundation:

Subject to periodic revision by the Advisory Board, and the requirement of individual PURA clusters, the following are some of the salient roles the Foundation shall play.

- ✦ Be a referral center providing guidance in PURA design, formation, etc. by bringing together volunteers and PURA centers for mutual collaboration.
- ✦ Analyze rural development programs, grants, incentives, charitable foundations, etc. and seek adequate funding for some of the basic needs.
- ✦ Help with setting up necessary hardware, software and electronic connectivity and ensure functioning nodal centers that become the life-line to most connectivities critical in the PURA success.
- ✦ Facilitate micro-lending and small business financing programs, educational sessions, informative seminars, trade conferences, etc.
- ✦ Help with setting up Tele-Education, distance learning, online certification, etc. for employment generation in various fields.
- ✦ Facilitate Tele-medical consultations for rural health centers and mobile clinics to promote health, nutrition, sanitation, preventive care, etc.
- ✦ Promote water management, water conservation, water purification projects. Encourage green building concepts; alternate, renewable energy usage and establish energy independence.
- ✦ Teach / train (i.e. Organic / eco-friendly agri practices, aqua-culture, flori-culture, etc.) and be a source for business design, planning, market research, strategy, etc. to encourage rural entrepreneurship and small business incubation.
- ✦ Develop PURA network for internal commerce and external market reach. Establish market opportunities to enable inter-PURA trade, commerce, cultural exchange, etc.

ARTICLE IV – STRUCTURE:

- (i) Non-Profit Corporation: The Foundation shall be organized as a Non-Profit Corporation in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, in accordance with the "Kentucky Nonprofit Corporation Acts" KRS 273.161 to 273.390, governed by the applicable statutes and regulatory standards that govern all charitable, non-profit entities and also conforming to the 501(c) (3) IRC. The income and revenue shall NOT be distributed to any member, director or officers in the form of any dividends or otherwise. This does not prohibit compensating individuals for services provided to the Foundation, in line with compensation paid for such services by similar non-profit entities and such compensation / salary shall be reasonable and commensurate with the services rendered.

(ii) Fiscal Year: The Fiscal year shall be from Jan. 1 ending on Dec. 31 of the same calendar year

(iii) Rights enjoyed: The Foundation shall enjoy all the rights and privileges accorded to any non-profit corporation, including the right to sue, and be sued in its corporate name, purchase, lease, or own property in the corporate name, lend money, contract, make donations for the public welfare, and exercise other powers consistent with the vision, mission and purposes, stated above. None of the Executive Committee members, Directors and Board Members are allowed to receive any loan under any circumstance from the Foundation.

(iv) In the event this Foundation is in any one year a "private foundation" as defined by Section 509 (a) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, it shall be required to distribute its income for such taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to subject the foundation to taxation under Section 4942 of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; and further shall be prohibited from: (i) any act of 'self-dealing' as defined in Section 4941 (d) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; (ii) retaining any 'excess business holdings' as defined by Section 4943 (c) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; (iii) making any investments in such manner as to subject the Foundation to taxation under Section 4944 of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws; or (iv) making any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945 (d) of the Code, or corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws.

(v) Dissolution Provision: In the unlikely event the Foundation does not serve the purpose for which it is set up, the Advisory Board may decide to dissolve the Foundation with adequate documentation and with the consent of more than 75 % of all the Board members serving at that time. Upon dissolution of the Foundation, the Advisory Board, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the Foundation, dispose of all the assets of the Foundation exclusively for the purposes of the Foundation, in such manner, or to such an organization organized exclusively for charitable, cultural or civic purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization(s) under IRC Section 501 (c) (3) of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future US Law, as the Advisory Board may determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of appropriate jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Foundation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization(s) as said court shall determine to be organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
